12 v.

13 CHW GROUP, INC. d/b/a CHOICE HOME
 WARRANTY,

Case No. 2:25-cv-00651-APG-EJY

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND DEADLINE FOR DEFENDANT
 TO ANSWER, MOVE OR OTHERWISE
 RESPOND TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

(First Request)

15 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P. 6 (b)(1)(A), LR 7-1, LR IA 6-1, and LR
 16 IA 6-2, Plaintiffs Pamela Claus and Virginia Gruver (collectively, "Plaintiffs") and Defendant CHW
 17 Group, Inc. d/b/a Choice Home Warranty (individually "Defendant" and collectively with the 18 Plaintiffs, the "Parties"), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully stipulate
 19 and agree and do hereby jointly move the Court for an Order extending the deadline for Defendant
 20 to answer, move, to respond to Plaintiff's Complaint (ECF No. 1, "Complaint") in this matter, to 21 and including July 14, 2025. In support thereof, the Parties further state and agree as follows:

- 22 1. Plaintiffs filed their Complaint in this matter on April 11, 2025.
 23 2. Defendant executed a waiver of service of process on April 14, 2025 (ECF No. 5).
 24 By operation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(3), therefore, the Defendant's response to the Complaint is 25 presently due on June 13, 2023.
 26 3. Counsel for the Parties met and conferred on June 9, 2025, via email, regarding 27 extending the foregoing deadline. Plaintiffs agreed to grant Defendant an extension of not less than 28

1 thirty (30) days. By operation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a)(1) & (5), therefore, Defendant's new deadline
 2 to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the Complaint, if approved, would be on July 14, 2025.<sup>1</sup>

3       4. This is the first request for an extension of Defendant's initial pleading deadline.

4       5. There are several reasons as to why Defendant and its counsel seek and are in need
 5 of an extension of time as to Defendant's aforementioned responsive pleading deadline. First,
 6 though they have acted diligently, Defendant and Defendant's undersigned counsel (who was just
 7 recently retained) need sufficient time to adequately investigate the underlying facts and allegations
 8 in the Complaint, prepare an appropriate responsive pleading(s), and potentially explore an extra-
 9 judicial resolution with Plaintiffs, which may obviate the need for Defendant to respond to the 10 Complaint altogether if successful. Second, Defendant's counsel have various unmovable
 11 professional and personal scheduling conflicts with the current deadline (including preplanned 12 vacations and several motions and hearings set for around the same time period), which make 13 completing the foregoing tasks by the current deadline extraordinarily difficult, if not impossible.
 14 Third, though it denies liability, Defendant desires to explore an extra-judicial resolution of this 15 dispute with Plaintiffs without incurring additional legal expenses or burdening the Court or its 16 resources, and therefore requires additional time prior to the current pleading deadline to do so.
 17 Fourth, a short extension will promote efficiency and conserve judicial and party resources in this
 18 matter, by allowing Defendant sufficient time to investigate and attempt to reach an extra-judicial 19 resolution without having to engage in motion practice. Fifth, Plaintiffs agree to the extension.

20       6. The Parties agree that the requested extension will promote efficiency and judicial 21 economy by enabling the Parties to fully and adequately evaluate the claims at issue, allow 22 Defendant to prepare an appropriate responsive pleading if necessary, and allow the Parties to 23 continue to engage in preliminary resolution discussions without incurring additional expenses.

24       7. Defendant does not seek the requested extension for purposes of delay.

25       8. The requested extension will not prejudice any party and will not impact the timely
 26 resolution of this matter, particularly as the Parties are in agreement and this is Defendant's first

27
 28 <sup>1</sup> Thirty days from the current deadline is Sunday, July 13. By operation of Rule 6, therefore, the deadline would carry over to the next business day, which is Monday, July 14, 2025.

1 requested extension of any kind in this cause. Moreover, an extension will promote justice, and
 2 judicial and party economy.

3       9. For at least the reasons above, therefore the Parties agree and respectfully submit
 4 that there is sufficient “good cause” for the requested extension under all applicable rules and law,
 5 and therefore do jointly request the Court’s approval of this Stipulation.

6       10. Plaintiffs have agreed to be bound by this Stipulation, pending Court approval of 7 same, and to not seek entry of a default against Defendant, to the extent the requested extension
 8 requires judicial approval and is not approved on or before Defendant’s current pleading deadline.

9       11. In requesting this extension and by this Stipulation, Defendant does not waive and 10 expressly reserves the right to assert any and all defenses to the underlying action, including, but
 11 not limited to, any defenses Defendant could raise pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b), including any jurisdictional defenses, standing, or any arbitral rights (including the right to 13 move to compel arbitration).

14      WHEREFORE, for all of the reasons above, the parties stipulate and respectfully request
 15 that the Court enter this order extending the Defendant’s deadline to respond to the Complaint by 16 a period of no less than thirty (30) days, to and including July 14, 2025, along with granting the 17 Parties all other relief the Court deems just and proper.
